Changing Families: Changing Traditions

"ALL IN THE FAMILY"

The Community Services Programs
Division is planning to develop expanded community programming
in the area of Family Studies.
Lillian Zimmerman, would like to hear from any Faculty/Staff who are interested in offering a C.E. course next fall which relates to the family, either General Interest or Skills Development, or who would be interested in discussing ideas/
plans for future community programs.

Please call Lillian at New Westminster Campus loc.226

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Please note that the existing Departmental P.D. Committees will remain in tact until June 30, 1981 to adjudicate
P.D. requests for both Douglas and Kwantlen Colleges.

Please submit your requests for P.D.
funds to those respective committees.

It is important to point out that any funds actually paid before March 31, 1981 will be charged against the 80/81
budget. Commitments for expenditures after March 31, 1981 will be charged to the 81/82 budget.

Watch for information regarding committees to handle P.D. in the Fall.
We hope to have these in place by the end of June.

SESSIONAL FACULTY MEMBERS

For your information, we would like to point out that the Premises for Allocation of Employees to the Two Colleges apply to sessional faculty as well as all other employees.

Specifically, sections #4 and #5 assure employees of assistance in obtaining employment in both colleges as sessionals as well as an access to regular employment.

Below: Statement-Premises for Allocation of Employees to the Two Colleges.

1. All regular employees will retain their rights to regular employment and benefits.
2. As much as possible, employees will have their wishes re location given serious consideration. Appeals shall be through the respective Labour-Management Committees.
3. If an employee's job is deemed redundant as a result of the College split, the employee will be guaranteed employment with no loss in salary, benefits, rights and seniority.

4. Employees will retain all accumulated seniority to assist them in attaining employment and benefits at either college.
5. There will be the possibility of joint appointments of employees provided for in both colleges.
6. The proportion of part-time employees will not be increased by the division of the college.
